

Tonga Island Paddle & Hike

1 day paddle and 1 day hike

Want to experience the more northern part of the Abel Tasman National Park? Join our Tonga Island Marine tour on day one, stay at Anchorage overnight on the houseboat and walk the coastal track back to Marahau on day two.

Day One

We load kayaks and paddlers onto the water taxi at Marahau and 40 exciting minutes later we're at Onetahuti Beach. We unload boats and have a safety briefing then we're away paddling to Tonga Island and its flourishing seal colony. Enjoy the beauty of these sleek black mammals, experience being within their natural environment.

Tides permitting, explore the spectacular Tonga Arches, or enchanting Shag Harbor, head south to Bark Bay followed by a lazy drift up Falls River. Find that dreamed of golden sand beach, for a yummy picnic lunch and a freshly brewed coffee.

As the sea breeze builds, sail back to Anchorage. The kayaks return with the guide to Marahau by water taxi and the next part of your adventure begins:

Chris, your host on the houseboat, meets you on the beach and ferries you out to the houseboat, a hot shower and a barbeque on the deck complete a memorable day. Accommodation is either shared dormitory style or private double cabins. Rumor has it (weather permitting) that night time excursions are made to see glow worms and marvel at the night time phosphorescence!

Day Two

After breakfast the houseboat staff will drop you back to Anchorage beach where you start your hike south on the famous coastal track back to Marahau. (Bring your own lunch for your freedom walk)

It's a leisurely 4 hour walk (11 kms) and there's plenty of time to visit such highlights as Cleopatra's pools or picturesque Te Pukatea Bay, and also time to stop, swim and relax on the beaches of the Astrolabe.

The Sea Kayak Company transport departs Marahau for Motueka, once a day at approximately 4.30 pm from the Park entrance.
